

BREAD MAKERS OUT IN FORCE

Fully 300 Kansas Bakers Here for Convention.

Called to Order by President
Ostberg, of Salina.

ADDRESSES OF WELCOME MADE

By Governor Arthur Capper and Mayor J. E. House.

Secretary Papenhausen, of Mc-
Louth, Reads His Report.

The Kansas bakers are here in full force. From all parts of the state the makers of bread have put their shop in the hands of an assistant and boarded a Topeka-bound train. Fully 300 bakers will be in the capital city before nightfall. The sessions of the association of Master Bakers of Kansas are being held in the A. O. U. W. hall, on West Sixth avenue.

Late this morning a brief meeting of the executive committee was held. W. H. Kients, Topeka, presiding. The other members are Roy Jordan of Topeka; H. T. Buren, Tonganoxie; A. Satorius, Wichita; and N. E. Unruh, Newton. The secretary of the association, H. C. Papenhausen of McLouth, was also present. W. H. Work of Ottawa, treasurer, was unable to attend, but will be here for the session Wednesday morning.

In the interests of the proposed transmississippi bakers' organization came S. J. Statler, a well known baker from St. Joseph, Mo. Mr. Statler believes that the new association will be of invaluable assistance to bakers in Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska and Iowa. Another widely known baker here is Mr. Statelhoeffer of Cincinnati.

There was no business of great importance reported at the executive committee meeting today. Discussion of the entrance to the transmississippi association was the routine order of business.

Bakers Are Fair Boosters.
The hotel lobbies, in addition to being crowded with fair visitors, had a goodly share of bakers in attendance. The bakers are all good boosters for the great free state fair.

The convention proper was called to order promptly at 2 o'clock this afternoon by the president, J. V. Ostberg, of Salina. Governor Capper delivered the first address of welcome. "The bakers in Kansas," the governor said, "are the best in the world. I know of no other state where they are kept as clean as here and where the products of their huge ovens are so edible."

Mayor House, in welcoming the visitors, made a brief and characteristic talk, telling the bakers that Topeka will be glad to entertain the big convention from the four states in a year or two.

President Ostberg responded to the addresses. Secretary Papenhausen read his report. I. Van Meter of Parsors, vice president, spoke on "Benefits of the Convention and Co-Operation." Louis Hall spoke on the subject, "For Better Bread."

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock the delegates will meet at the National hotel for a line party at a vaudeville house. At 9:30 candidates will be initiated into the Salty Order of Pretzels.

REACTION WILL COME

Business Depression Will Follow War
Says Taft to Bankers.

San Francisco, Sept. 14.—Warning to business interests that a serious business depression in the United States will follow the conclusion of the European war, was uttered by former President William Howard Taft Monday before a gathering of bankers in the Ohio state building at the exposition.

"I do not subscribe to the elation evinced by the headlines of the press over the harvest of dollars by the movement of the war," said Judge Taft. "The reaction will be much more severe." The former president declared the present situation of the United States in regard to the war to be "critical," but expressed the belief that it would be smoothed out. He advised the bankers to "reef their sails" in preparation for the proposed reaction, as the business stability of the country would rest in their hands. "The present banking acts need amendment from a Republican standpoint," he said. Judge Taft also complimented the Ohio commissioners in the highest terms both for the beauty and conduct of their building, and for the constructive showing which the Buckeye state is making at the exposition. It made him feel proud to be an Ohioan, he said.

The occasion was "Ohio Bankers Day" at the exposition.

ASHES IN MISSISSIPPI

Mrs. Sylvester Gives Remains of Husband to River He Loved.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 14.—At three o'clock last Sunday afternoon a launch pulled away from Alton, Ill., and with its engine dead, slowly floated down the Mississippi river. At the stern sat a woman and from a copper urn dropped particles of dust into the river, tenderly and reluctantly.

She was Mrs. Florence G. Sylvester. The substance she scattered over the river were the ashes of her late husband, Frederick Oakes Sylvester, poet, painter and lover, all of the Mississippi. His paintings and writings of the river had made Sylvester famous. In life he and the river were inseparable. Just before he died a year ago he wished that in death they should be so too.

Red Men in Session.

Chicago, Sept. 14.—Three thousand members of the Improved Order of Red Men attended the opening of the sixteenth grand council here today. The meeting will continue for three days. Services were held by the council in Lincoln park at the grave of David Kinsman, one of the founders of the order and the last surviving member of the Boston tea party. He died in Chicago at the age of 116 years.

MAY GO TO EUROPE

W. J. Bryan Willing to Make Trip for Peace.

Final Decision Rests With Editors of Foreign Papers.

Philadelphia, Sept. 14.—William Jennings Bryan has signified his willingness to go to Europe and attempt to bring about peace. Whether or not he will go will be decided on at a conference between the publishers of foreign language newspapers and himself in Washington on September 17.

The announcement of Mr. Bryan's decision was contained in a letter received today by the Tribune, an Italian newspaper here from Dr. William Forge of Brooklyn, who publishes the Forge Guides and heads of the movement to have Mr. Bryan try to stop the war.

The announcement was accompanied by an invitation to attend the conference. Colonel Bryan will destroy his own expenses. "After the talk I had with Mr. Bryan," writes Doctor Forge, "I am under the impression that provided it develops at this meeting with the editors that he is going abroad is advisable, he himself will for the case, the case, not only sacrifice his time but will also pay his own expenses."

This was in answer to a number of the conferees who proposed that a fund be raised from which to pay Mr. Bryan a salary and his expenses. Doctor Forge's first correspondence with Mr. Bryan and some of the editors of foreign language newspapers started on August 17. Letters have not been received here, however, until Monday.

Mr. Bryan's proposed trip will be for the purpose of demonstrating to the world the power and influence for good which is exerted by American newspapers published in foreign languages.

AT THE THEATERS.

Novelty Review.

Miss Marie Mitchell, as Mary, in the sketch, "Try and Mary," at the Novelty this week, is the most attractive of the pretty actresses who have been here in some time. Miss Mitchell's singing numbers were excellent. Tom Swift and Hazel Kelley, in the same sketch, divided honors with Miss Mitchell in the cleverly written and acted piece.

Fred Jarvis and Frederica Harrison had no trouble whatever in getting more applause for their efforts than any other bill. Their lively conversation of unusual merit won their spurs.

The Midori troupe of Japanese acrobats, enlivened the scenery with some realistic tumbling. The Jamison Duo, two young ladies, harmonized well. El Cota, modestly billed as the greatest xylophonist the world ever lived, did not quite come up to this magnificent title. Paramount traveltogs showed tropical Florida and parts of Kingston, Jamaica.—S. J.

Hip Review.
The Turista duo presented a musical act at the Hip theater last night that was at the Novelty theater last season. The Turistas made a success in instrumental as well as vocal numbers. The Lovejoy trio glided and sang through their act which was of a high order.

"Neal of the Navy," second episode, was the principal picture. Another three reel photoplay, a powerful drama, entitled "The Confession of Madame Barastoff," was shown. The picture program changes Wednesday with a feature and another change in pictures and vaudeville will be made Thursday.

Grand Review.
For those who like the old fashioned repertoire show the Robert Grandi Stock company at the Grand theater this week is offering a creditable performance. The company opened its engagement with "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" last night. Tonight the "Man of Mystery" will be shown and there will be a new play each night of the week.

The Grandi company uses the plan of specialties between acts. The company has not been seen in Topeka for years. A quartet made up from members of the company did some clever singing. Lillian Leigh is the leading lady. The company and the Grandi brothers, Robert, Art and Carl carry the heavy end of the work.—E. W. W.

At the Crystal.
The event of the week at the Crystal will be the presentation Wednesday and Thursday of the popular international star, Marie Tempest, in her movie debut, "Miss Plum's Pudding," in five parts. In the words of Miss Simpson, state censor, the play abounds in everything that goes to make good entertainment—comedy, pathos and action. There will be no advance in the price of admission. Miss Tempest was in Topeka last season in "Nearly Married," and she scored a tremendous hit.

Electric Review.
"An Alien" is an arrangement of the old "Sign of the Rose" in which George Beban was enthusiastically received throughout the country. "An Alien," a feature photoplay, is being shown all this week at the Electric theater, which opened its new season Monday.

George Beban's makeup in the picture is realistic and perfect in every detail. His acting is great as the poor Italian and throughout the play he is the center of interest. Beban's work had many people in tears at the Electric last night.

The picture is a Thomas Ince production. Its story is gripping and all the actors and actresses take their parts commendably. On account of the great length of the film, no vaudeville is being presented now at the Electric. "An Alien" is a photoplay that plays upon the emotions and would be cheap at half dollar prices. The Electric admission is only a dime.—S. J.

At the Auditorium.
Once more the people of Topeka are to be given a chance to see and hear the famous Jubilee singers who will appear at the Auditorium on Tuesday evening, September 28, under the auspices of the Topeka Local Christian Endeavor union. The money derived will go to the hospital and flower fund of the union.

The Hann Jubilee singers, under the personal direction of Mr. A. Davis, are considered to be the best entertainers of their kind on the American stage. They have appeared in Topeka several times before and have received favorable comment here as well as in numerous other cities where their entertainment has been given.

A special meeting of the Endeavorers of the city has been called for Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A.

SNAP SHOTS

AT HOME NEWS.

The physical training classes of the Y. M. C. A. will open the first week in October.

The banks of the city will close at noon Thursday and Friday instead of Tuesday and Thursday.

All hotels and rooming houses in the city report a rushing business on the opening day of the fair.

The federal building will be repainted, according to the decision of a government building inspector. The same color will be used.

Postmaster W. O. Rigby will attend the convention of first and second class postmasters held in Washington, D. C., October 20 to 22.

Valley, of Phoenix, Ariz., who is driving forty burros to Mooseheart, Ill., from his home town, is due to arrive in Topeka today.

Jitneys are not allowed to drive to the entrance of the state fair grounds by order of the fair management.

One hundred automobiles from Concochia came to Topeka to attend the fair. This is the biggest delegation from Concochia that ever attended the Topeka fair.

The first marriage of fair week was performed this morning by Judge Hugh MacFarland in the probate court. Charles Colbie, of Smith Center, Kan., was married.

R. W. Deaver, of Dayton, Ohio, has been secretary of the fair for the Provisional Life and Trust company which has just opened a general state office for Kansas in the Kansas building.

Strawberries that never stop bearing can be seen in the Field's Nursery booth in the Agricultural building. The new blossoms and ripe red berries are growing on the same stems.

"Punch" Rigby is enlarging his confection shop on West Fifth. A partition is being removed and the candy store will occupy the room next door formerly used as a restaurant.

The postoffice will be closed at noon Wednesday for the fair. One delivery of mail will be made in the morning. The general delivery windows will be open from 6 to 8 o'clock.

Mr. Effie, an Tuxi, hostess at the Kansas building at the San Francisco exposition, is recovering after an illness of three weeks. She has been ill since she received an electric shock several weeks ago.

Frank Thompson, colored, was arrested this morning by the police for the sale of whisky. Chief Harvey Parsons and a squad of officers raided Thompson's room at 120 Kansas avenue and found a dozen bottles of whisky.

A grand breaking crowd attended the Meach-Wilde revival meeting at the Pentecostal church of the Nazarene Monday night. Professor Meach-Wilde and the singing of the quartet were features of the meeting.

The first meeting of the Ministerial Association will be held at the Y. M. C. A.

CUT DIAMONDS

Forty-seven of Them Set in Case of Watch Valued at $3,500.

Gift to L. T. Cooper on Account of His Premier Preparation.

One of the greatest acts of appreciation received by Mr. Cooper, the man who has gained such a wide reputation as a jeweler, was the gift of a watch valued at $3,500, maybe a little more. Forty-seven flawless cut diamonds are imbedded in its gold case, not to mention its equipment of pigeon-blood rubies. This beautiful timepiece is exquisitely embellished with ornamentation of foreign workmanship and contains finest Swiss movements. It is really a masterpiece.

According to Mr. Cooper, the watch came into his possession through the merits of Tanlac. It happened, so he says, about this way:

In one of the large cities visited by Mr. Cooper some time ago, the young son of a wealthy jeweler suffered from a complaint which had baffled physicians of the city and eastern specialists. The boy was weak, listless, and not at all playful and as lively as the other little fellows of his own age. The parent said that the child's appetite was irregular, at times ravenous and complained of a twitching sensation most of the time. Itching of the nose and dizziness were other symptoms.

"He asked me," said Mr. Cooper, "if I thought Tanlac would help his child. In reply I stated that he could test the medicine on his own child. The result was he bought Tanlac for his son."

"Thinking nothing particularly of the incident, I was a little surprised a few months later to receive a letter from the jeweler stating that Tanlac had relieved his son who was now rosy and running about like the rest of the boys and asking me if I would accept a 'memento' of his appreciation." I answered his letter, telling him that while I would appreciate his gift, the fact that Tanlac had accomplished the right results in his child's case was sufficiently gratifying to me.

"Shortly afterward this beautiful watch came. You can imagine my surprise. To me this gift is invaluable, because it bears a double meaning." Tanlac, the premier preparation, which has gained for Mr. Cooper so many friends in cities where he has visited, is now on sale at the Tully-McFarland drug store (successors to Matt Weightman), Ninth and Kansas avenues, in this city where W. C. Pope, the "Tanlac Man," the personal representative of Mr. Cooper, is greeting the public and explaining the merits of the "Master Medicine."—Adv.

J. F. Yockey, of Junction City, came to Topeka from St. Joseph this morning to "do" the free state fair. He had no more than clambered down from the Santa Fe train than he was picked up by an officer who helped him keep his feet until the patrol wagon came. Yockey was booked as being drunk. He had a half pint of whisky in his coat pocket and carried a carload with him of beer in it.

The Federation of Churches held a meeting of the laymen's missionary movement in Topeka on October 31 and November 1. Dr. M. F. Trozoll presided at the meeting. A local executive committee was appointed to lay plans for the meeting. Dr. Benjamin Starr of New York, executive secretary of the general committee, attended the meeting and will remain in Topeka until after the laymen's meeting. A meeting of the committee will be held at noon tomorrow at the Y. M. C. A.

Luella Sneed, a negro woman wanted here on a charge of larceny from the person, also she was pretty clever when she eluded the police of Salina but when she walked right into the jaws of the law at the Union Pacific station this morning she changed her mind. Officer Furgason arrested her and Mamie Potter early this morning. The Sneed woman was turned over to the county officials and a warrant charging the Potter woman with stealing a hand satchel from the train was issued. The Sneed woman robbed a Mexican of $45 about a week ago and shipped to Salina. Chief Harvey Parsons notified the Salina authorities but when they began to look for her she came back to Topeka.

At Less Cost—

There's more nutritive value that the system will absorb in Grape-Nuts than in either meat or bread.

A remarkable fact.

Weight for weight a package of Grape-Nuts supplies one-third more nourishment than a roast of beef and at about half the cost. A roast of beef is about twenty per cent waste and there is a shrinkage in cooking. Grape-Nuts comes ready cooked—and not a crumb need be wasted

Think it over!

There's bread—white bread lacks certain elements essential to building brain and body. Why? Because in milling white flour, four-fifths of the precious mineral content (all important for health and life) is thrown out with the brancoat of wheat to make the flour look white and pretty.

Grape Nuts

not only supplies all the brain-and bone-building nerve-and muscle-making phosphates of the wheat but all the rich nutriment of malted barley.

Besides, Grape-Nuts is easily digested—generally in about an hour—white bread and beef require about 2½ hours.

Grape-Nuts comes in germ-proof moisture-proof packages—ready to serve with cream or milk—a delicious ration economical and highly nourishing.
